LB 995, 998, 999

Reading LB 995.

CLERK: Final Reading of LB 995.

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relating to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 995 pass with the emergency clause attached? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record the vote.

CLERK: Record vote read. (See page 1693, Legislative Journal.) 37 ayes, 7 nays, 4 excused and not voting, 1 present and not voting, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: LB 995 passes with the emergency clause attached. Before we go to the next bill, the Chair takes the opportunity to introduce some guests of Senator Pirsch, some 85 eleventh grade students from Omaha Central High School with their teachers, Mr. Clyde Lincoln, Ms. Adrienne Norris, Mr. Mike Stolp and Ms. Verona Jerabek. They are up here in the North balcony. Would they stand or just wave to us. Good morning. Welcome to the Legislature. For the students at Omaha Central, I will tell you that you are observing the Final Reading portion of the Legislature's activities which by the Constitution requires all legislators to listen to every last word of every bill to be read to them which takes numerous hours of their time during the session, and by their own rules, they must remain at their desks. So if you wonder what is going on, that is what is going on, Final Reading, and so the Clerk will now continue with Final Reading with the reading of LB 998.

CLERK: Final Reading of LB 998.

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relating to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 998 pass with the emergency clause attached? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record the vote.

CLERK: Record vote read. (See page 1694, Legislative Journal.) 45 ayes, 0 nays, 4 excused and not voting, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: LB 998 passes with the emergency clause attached. The Clerk will now read on Final Reading LB 999.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Lewis has motions on LB 999 but I have been instructed that he wishes to withdraw those.
